There are many people to thank for this research project. First of all I would like to thank my major professor, Beth Folta for guiding me through the interpretation program at SUNY-ESF, giving me advice on research, jobs and goals for my future. I would like to thank her for introducing me to this research project and giving me the opportunity to work closely and learn so much from the environmental education organization Project Learning Tree®. Furthermore, I would like to thank Project Learning Tree® and all of their help and support throughout this research project. I would especially like to thank Tom Shimalla and Betsy Ukeritis. Betsy, thank you so much for answering all my emails at a moment's notice and always putting me into contact with the right person to answer all of my questions. Tom, thank you very much for your consistent communication throughout the project, always providing quick feedback and guidance on the research process.

And thank you very much to my steering committee, Laura Rickard and Diane Kuehn for their feedback and support throughout the research process. Also thank you to Steve Stehman for providing guidance and advice on my statistics for this project.

Lastly, I'd like to thank my parents for always supporting me in whatever educational endeavor I set out to do. Thank you for listening to all of the highs and lows of this research project and giving me the consistent support I needed to keep moving forward.
